

Calhoun: The NPS Institutional Archive

Institutional Publications

NPS Newsletter

2004-01

NPS Newsletter / Volume 1, Issue 3, January 2004 (Special Edition)

Monterey, California ; Naval Postgraduate School (U.S.)

<http://hdl.handle.net/10945/40906>

Calhoun is a project of the Dudley Knox Library at NPS, furthering the precepts and goals of open government and government transparency. All information contained herein has been approved for release by the NPS Public Affairs Officer.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

laws, with a special emphasis placed on absentee voting requirements. For more voting assistance information, visit www.fvap.gov or speak to NPS' voting representative, Lt. Ashton Feehan at 656-7613.

NPS Professor Elected to Meteorological Society Post

The Monterey Herald

Professor Chuck Wash, chairman of the meteorology department at the Naval Postgraduate School, has been elected to the governing council of the American Meteorological Society for a three-year term. more...

Astronaut applauds Bush plan

The Monterey Herald

Every great human advancement begins with a vision and a road map, and President Bush provided those Wednesday, according to the astronaut who holds the American record for continuous days in space. more...

Exploration remains important

The Salinas Californian

An astronaut who trained at the Naval Postgraduate School spoke there on Wednesday, heralding a renewed dedication to space exploration as urged by President Bush. more...

Many NPS Grad Students Foreign

The Monterey Herald

Talk about diversity. More than a third of the incoming class of graduates students at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey are foreign nationals. more...

